Foreword

Another school year is quickly ending; but this one marks the time when we shall depart on separate ways. During the past years, we have shared many happy and exciting moments with our friends. The apprehension before the big test, the fun at our parties, the talks with our teachers—remembrances of all these shall remain with us throughout our lifetime. If the 1960 edition of the LION'S ROAR can help preserve those cherished memories, this yearbook will be successful in its purpose.

Class History

My name is Doctor Ray X (X-RAY). On the couch beside me is Miss Y.

—"Miss Y, you say you can't remember anything?"

—"Since the accident, I can't remember any events of my high school years."

—"That's why you're here, Miss Y. Since the last time you were in my office, I've been doing some research. Because of the information you gave me, I've been able to look into your high school years.

"We'll start with your freshman year. Do any of these people sound familiar? The class officers for instance—Steve McGrath, president; Pamela Holmes, vice-president; Carol Tautkas, secretary; Joanne Rogers, treasurer."

—"No, I'm sorry."

—"Do you remember your civics class project during the voting season? Your civics teacher, Mr. Pendleton, led a "Get out the vote" campaign. You and the other girls helped provide a babysitting service for the voters. Your class also held a poster contest which was won by Judy Bedard and Pat Nordstrom."

—"Did we get a lot of write-ups in the newspaper and win a citation from Parents Magazine?"

—"Yes! Yes! Now we're getting somewhere!!"

—"No, it's written on the back of your notebook."

—"Ahem—to continue . . . What about the time your class took a trip to the State House in Boston?"

—"I can't think back."

—"Can you remember any of the new members of the class who entered during the year—Joan Pruneau, Linda Mulhern, Ruth Kronberg, Curt Kitchen, Jed Maker, Mike Morse or Jerry Mercier?"

—"The names sound familiar."

—"We'll try one more event—the class trip to Whalom Park. Everyone spent most of his time on the beach—except Peter Boucher and Phyllis Anderson who rode the roller coaster twenty-five times in a row."

—"I'm sorry. Let's try my sophomore year."

—"Your sophomore year was an exciting experience for you and the rest of your classmates. You entered a new school. I'll bet you ran from one end of the building to the other trying to find your classes."

—"We did."

—"You remember then?"

—"Yes, it's coming back to me. The class officers were: Paul Lagerstrom, president; and um-m . . ."

—"Steve McGrath, vice-president; Carol Tautkas, treasurer; and Mary Pepin, secretary."

—"Yes."

—"John Brosnahan, alias Charlie Brown, and Curt Kitchen joined the class that year."

—"I remember that. Charlie was in the Clark Tournament along with Steve McGrath, Curt Downer, and Ward Anderson. Doctor, was that the year we put on that crazy assembly?"

—"Yes."

—"How could I have forgotten Jerry Murphy doing The Yellow Rose of Texas, or the boys' chorus line wearing girls' petticoats . . . and oh, those crazy legs!! You should have been there, Doctor—you would have died laughing at Bucky Warren, the class strongman. Gordon Haddad was supposed to be a snake charmer, but he wasn't in school that day. I wonder why? Carol Esonis, Joanne DeLong, and Thelma Hanson sang a few songs.

"In our Junior year our class officers were: Fred Crowley, president; Curt Downer, vice-president; Joanne Rogers, secretary; and Phyllis Anderson, treasurer. Cynthia Fischer, Barbara Mulryan, Bill Shannon, Joe Benedict, Jerry Lindblom, and Dennis Christo came into the class that year.

"We put on a Junior Prom, Ebb Tide, for the seniors. We even brought a lighthouse into the gym for the prom, doctor . . . Was it hard keeping the crepe paper on the walls! The dance was under the supervision of Richard Robinson, Pamela Holmes, Fred Crowley, Elaine Dorsey, Curt Downer, David Anderson, and Phyllis Anderson; but everyone helped to make it a success.

"Well, this year we played in the Clark Tournament again, but came in second place instead of third as we had the year before.

"Robert Morse and Joanne Rogers were our Boys' and Girls' State Representatives.

"Next year, all forty-four of us entered school—seniors at last. Fred Crowley was elected president; Dennis Christo, vice-president; Carol Esonis, secretary; and Elaine Dorsey, treasurer.

"We began to work on the Senior Play and Christmas Ball immediately, and at last we reached the final steppingstone of our high school career: June arrived and with it graduation. As we left the halls of West Boylston, we carried with us many happy memories of the times spent there by the class of 1960.

Doctor, what are you doing on the couch?"

Class Will

We, the Class of 1960, in order to form a more disorganized high school, establish violence, insure trouble, promote the general commotion, provide for the more complete destruction of the system, and secure the reputation of our delinquency to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this Last Will and Testament for the Senior Class of West Boylston Junior-Senior High School, hereby revoking all wills heretofore made by us.

After the payments of our just debts and funeral charges, we bequeath and devise as follows:

ARTICLE I

1. To the undergraduates we leave from one to several years more in this noble institution—and our heartfelt sympathies. Also, we leave our fabulous record so that they may make an attempt to measure up to it.

2. To Mr. "Where have you been?" Johnson, we leave a Papermate pen with a piggy-back refill to replace the one he wore out signing slips for members of the Senior Class.

3. To Mr. "What's this about your schedule?" Lepore, we leave an empty office and our sincere thanks for his help and guidance during our high school years.

4. To Mr. "This is my palace" Flagg, we leave assuring him that if, ten years from now, someone asks us to define "democracy," we will reply in true "Flaggonian" style, and also a bushel of apples from his "apple-polishing" class.

5. To Mr. "Friends, Romans and Countrymen, lend me your ears" Cecchini, we leave a hearing aid so that he may hear future class members' recitations.

6. To Mr. "If you get bored, just fall asleep" Anghinetti, we leave a book on Freudian Psychology and our sincere thanks for helping us reach our optimum physiological balance or complacency.

7. To Mr. "Great is truth and it shall prevail" McGrail, we leave a lie-detector for the future seekers of truth, and our deepest respect and appreciation for his help in guiding us along the dark paths of English and Literature.

8. To Miss Scopelliti, we leave a dish of ice cream to lift her morale while correcting test papers after school.

9. To Mr. "All right, you people, 'move out!'" Griffin, we leave an adding machine to keep track of future candy sales and our deepest gratitude for putting up with our crazy antics.

10. To Mr. Neenan, we leave a three-speed dictaphone—slow, slower, most slow, and free tickets to the Irish Sweepstakes.

11. To Mr. "Safety per mile" O'Connor, we leave a deflated basketball to symbolize the departure of the majority of the basketball team.

12. To Mr. Howard, the Custodian, we leave Jack Benny's violin.

13. We leave all the apprentice teachers in peace and in the hopes that they will benefit from their experiences with us.

Now that we've taunted the faculty, we will proceed to do likewise to the lowly underclassmen:

Article II

1. Nancy Almstrong leaves her blonde hair to Patty Popko.

2. Dave "Whada ya say" Anderson leaves his ability to get thrown out of Chemistry Class to future juniors.

3. Phyllis "I'm sorry" Anderson leaves her other self behind in the hope that the one she takes with her will be better than the one she left.

4. Marilyn Bacon leaves her ability with office machines to future members of the commercial course.

5. Judy Bedard leaves with Dick Lindberg.

6. Dave Carlson leaves his miserly ways to Dick Priestly whose money seems to burn a hole in his pocket.

7. Donna Ciociolo leaves her giggle to Janet Gustavson.

8. Sherron "Everything's all mixed up" Ciociolo leaves a few inches of her height to Judy Ramstrom.

9. Pat Cousins leaves to go into nursing.

10. Linda-Jean Cram leaves her Chemistry notes to any Junior who's too lazy to take them.

11. Marilyn Griswold leaves on the next sputnik so she can babysit for the man in the moon.

12. Thelma Hanson leaves her ponytail to some deserving bald horse.

13. Linda Mulhern leaves all the Registry Inspectors shaking.

14. Jerry Lindblom sacrifices his curly hair to Billy Quist.

15. Linda Morter leaves as quietly as she came.

16. Paul "Atta Baby" Foley leaves his melodious roar to any Junior who thinks he can imitate it.

17. Pam Holmes leaves in search of a middle name.

18. Barbara Naphen leaves her argumentative ways so that Mr. Neenan may have some peace.

19. Elaine "I just don't know what I'm gonna do" Dorsey leaves a bottle of vitamin pills to next year's Senior Class who will surely need them.

20. Steve McGrath leaves his basketball ability to Walter Barnard in the hope that it will be put to good use.

21. Jimmy Paradis leaves the school parking lot quiet.

22. Joe Benedict leaves.

23. Joanne DeLong leaves following a "59" Ford Galaxy.

24. Bill Shannon leaves his ability to daydream anytime, anywhere, to anyone with lost of imagination.

25. Barbara Mulryan leaves her ability to confuse teachers with her answers to anyone who wants it.

26. Fred Crowley leaves his carrot-top to future farmers.

27. Curt Downer leaves a dictionary to those who are still wondering what he's been talking about.

28. Gary Dupuis leaves his motorcycle helmet to any member of the Junior class with a convertible.

29. Carol Esonis leaves Pinecroft Dairy.

30. Tom Hiller leaves his smile to anyone who needs the encouragement.

31. Paul Holmes leaves his basketball ability to Donald Wood.

32. Judy Holt and Frances Miller leave Mr. Flagg wondering why they giggle during X Period.

33. Rickey Robinson leaves Gail Vickery.

34. Joanne Rogers leaves the stage quietly.

35. Carol Tautkas leaves her basketball ability to Donna Breault.

36. Dennis Christo leaves his good manners to the underclassmen who certainly need them.

37. Gloria "Gee, you embarrass me" Ferrandino leaves her extra pair of stilts to Janice Blake.

38. Cynthia Fischer leaves her ability to always give the correct answer to anyone who wants to please an appreciative teacher.

39. Gordon Haddad leaves his ability to get away with racing around town on two wheels to anyone who thinks they can be as lucky.

40. Bob Hoyle leaves on his motorcycle.

41. Pat Parker and Ruth Kronberg leave Mr. Flagg without anyone to run off his history tests.

42. Edgar Sheldon leaves the school without an ice cream wagon.

43. Paul Lagerstrom leaves his memories of New Hampshire to all the underclassmen.

44. Dick Lindberg leaves his height to Bobby Parker.

45. Jerry Mercier leaves Mr. Anghinetti wondering.

46. George Merrill leaves his brother to take his place.

47. Mike Morse leaves his jazz records to be played during lunch periods.

48. Bob Morse leaves his extra supply of handkerchiefs to anyone who can live up to his reputation.

49. Bucky Warren leaves Mr. Flagg with many gray hairs.

50. Pat Nordstrom leaves her shyness to Kathy Orciani.

51. Joan Pruneau leaves taking her first-aid kit with her.

In testimony whereof, we, the class of 1960, have signed. published, and declared this to be our last will and testament in the presence of the undersigned, who, at our request, in our presence. and in the presence of each other have hereto subscribed their names as witnesses to said will.

Prophecy

Introduction: Presenting the phophecy of that heavenly class of '60.

Together We from the Pearly Gates greet you, mortals.

Voice 1: Well, Carol, our classmates of '60 are finally beginning to ascend the stairway to the heavens. It seems like such a long time.

Voice 2: Do you remember Fred Crowley?

Voice 1: You mean our class president who later became a world famous flea surgeon in Itch County, Ireland?

Voice 2: I'll never forget the headlines in the West Boylston Times—FORMER WEST BOYLSTON SCHOLAR PERFORMS FLEA OPERATION.

Voice 2: I could hardly believe my eyes when I read that the flea was none other than Phyllis "the flea" Anderson, his secretary. Another West Boylston student, Paul Holm, covered the story.

Voice 1: Here comes the nurses' corps. First to pass through the Pearly Gates is Pat "cut-em up" Cousins. Following her are Sherron "stitch-em-up" Ciociolo, and Linda Jean "inoculate-em" Cram. Trailing, not too far behind, is Barbara Naphen, an X-ray technician.

Voice 2: Greetings, Bill. Did you know that Bill Shannon was a history teacher at West Boylston High? He knows the American History Book from cover to cover. Accompanying Bill is the teachers' corps, consisting of Barbara Mulyran, Pam Holmes, Elaine Dorsey, Curt Downer, and Carol Esonis.

Voice 1: I can hear Gloria "pole-vaulter" Ferrandino, Nancy "peppy" Almstrom, Steve "dunk-em" McGrath, and Jerry "fly-high" Mercier approaching. They founded a gymnasium for pepless people. (the music) . . . Here comes one of their students now riding a camel. Why, it's Gordon "Have camel . . . will travel" Haddad.

Voice 2: There is the cause of the crash of 1985, that infamous stock broker and jazz drummer, Mike Morse. He is followed by his office crew—Donna Ciociolo, Judy Holt, Marilyn Griswold, Linda Morter, Joan Pruneau and his expert accountant, Dave Carlson.

Voice 1: A few steps behind is Joe Benedict, president of the "Cheat-em and Beat-em Loan Shark Bank," with one of his tellers, Joanne Rogers.

Voice 2: Richard Robinson, former electrical engineer and more recently, an undertaker for the "We Bury You Alive" Funeral Home, is coming now, followed by the designer of the coffins, Thelma Hanson and Gary Dupris, driver of Robinson's green Rolls-Royce trimmed in iridescent red.

Voice 1: There is Dr. Lindberg from Africa. He cared for the lions of West Boylston Jr.-Sr. High. Following him is the lion-feeder, Tom Hiller.

Voice 2: Half way up the stairs are Pat Nordstrom and Judy Bedard, who together painted a mural of our graduation exercises at our Alma Mater.

Voice 1: There, approaching the Gates, is George Merrill. After he retired from the Coast Guard, he became the announcer for "Yogi Bear Cartoons." Conservation and forester ranger in the Jellystone National Park, Paul Lagerstrom, is accompanying him.

Voice 2: "Kookie, Kookie, lend me your comb" is the frantic cry from Jim Paradis as he runs up the stairs after the hairdresser, Joanne DeLong.

Voice 1: Here come two members of the Worcester County Court House. The first member is Robert Hoyle who was in charge of scraping gum off the desks. This messy habit used to be carried on by Gerry Lindblom, judge in the juvenile court.

Voice 2: What . . . what happened? The lights went out. One of the electrical engineers must have pulled the wrong switch. There, they're back on again. I see the two electrical engineers, Bob Morse and Dennis Cristo, coming now.

"Forward March"

Voice 1: Here comes the squad of IBM operators who kept tabs on everyone. Marching in the ranks are Ruth Kronberg, Pat Parker, Marilyn Bacon, and Frances Miller. Leading them is the retired general, Edgar "Buzz" Sheldon.

Voice 2: Who is that at the bottom of the Stairway?

Voice 1: Why it's the auto-mechanic, Maurice "Bucky" Warren trying to fix Paul Foley's TV repair truck.

"ZOOM"

Voice 2: I guess he fixed it.

Voice 1: Last, but not least, is the famed scientist at Cape Canaveral, Dave "Mighty-Whitey" Anderson, wearing his Tom Corbet space jacket. Dave's last words were:

"Launching U. S. missiles up into the sky,
I, David Anderson, have glided on high."

Voice 2: Well, everyone seems to be here. I guess we can close the Gates now.

Voice 1—Cynthia Fischer
Voice 2—Carol Tautkas

Junior Prom

Ebb Tide

After much consideration, the Class of 1960 chose a romantic sea-theme for the Junior Prom, which was called "Ebb Tide." The formal dance was held on the evening of May 22, 1959, in the beautifully decorated gymnasium. Appropriate decorations of a lighthouse and pier provided a background reminiscent of the seashore.

Everyone danced to the excellent music of George Adrian and his Orchestra. A queen and her four attendants were chosen.

Refreshments were served to complete a wonderful evening to remember.

Senior Play

The Class of 1960 chose Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" for their Senior Play. Elaine Dorsey was appointed Student Director, and committees were chosen to perform the many tasks which are involved in the production of a play. The setting for the three-act play was in Grovers Corners, New Hampshire, a small, conservative town of the early 1900's. There were many hours of time and effort devoted to the production.

On December 2, 1959, the Class of 1960 proudly presented "Our Town" in the school auditorium, which was filled beyond seating capacity.

The Senior Class wishes to express their most sincere gratitude to Mr. McGrail, Director, for the painstaking effort he put into the production, and is forever indebted to him for having directed them in an outstanding event in their high school careers.

Mr. McGrail: And if they don't have any tickets—

Our Town

Joe Stoddard: He'd seen a peck of trouble.

Stage Manager: Everybody's resting in Grover's Corners.

Dr. Gibbs: And you stopping at the corner to gossip with a lot of hens.

Mrs. Webb: Why, Julia Gibbs!

Stimson: Louder! Louder!

Constable: In '84, we had a player, Si, even George Gibbs couldn't a touched him.

Editor Webb: Very ordinary town, if you ask me.

Stimson: Ignorance and blindness!

Mr. McGrail: How old are you supposed to be?

Pin-spot on Carol! Quick!

Mr. McGrail: After we open in New Haven . . .

Mr. Webb: Who did you say sent me these things?

Mrs. Soames: I don't care if it is of the period; it doesn't fit.

Christmas Ball

Crystal Moments

The third annual Christmas Ball, "Crystal Moments," was held just before the vacation break, on December 22, 1959. The motif was a living-room scene. In the corner, a large, beautifully lighted, silver Christmas tree stood next to a warm fireplace, and on the far wall, a wide bay window looked out upon the white snowladen countryside. Gayly colored streamers ran down from the ceiling, and the entire gymnasium was lighted by several chandeliers.

A fourteen-piece orchestra, the Commodores, supplied excellent and danceable music. Miss Susan Nielsen, the queen, reigned over the Ball, accompanied by her two attendants, Miss Joan Granger and Miss Joan Haworth.

The members of the Class of 1960 who worked on the preparations for this event are indebted to Mr. H. Edward Phelps, and Mr. Robert F. Flagg, Jr., of the faculty, who insured the success of the affair.

In Gratitude

We, the Class of 1960, wish to use this page to show our gratitude to all the teachers who have given freely of their time to advise and guide us throughout the years.

Long before we entered high school, Mr. Francis E. Lepore became associated with our class. As teacher and principal at Major Edwards during our seventh, eighth, and ninth grades, and as guidance director here at the high school, he has always been a good friend, and has done a great deal in behalf of our class.

We would also like to mention Mrs. Ann Sheehan, a truly fine teacher, who spent a lot of time with "old school," and who helped us greatly during the time we began to "jell" as a class.

Though we entered our sophomore year in a new school, our advisors weren't new to us since we had had Mrs. Lydia Andrews and Mr. George Smalanskas previously at Major Edwards. With the help of both these teachers, and Mr. James Neenan, who had many of us in his homeroom, we had a very rewarding year.

Mr. George Griffin, whom we had first met in the eighth grade, and to whom this Yearbook is dedicated, Miss Angelina Scopelliti, whom we have had as a teacher since the ninth grade, and Mr. Carlton O'Connor, whom we wish we could have known sooner than we did—these were our advisors in our junior year. By now the years of expert guidance were beginning to show as we again completed another successful year.

This year our class advisors were Mr. Robert F. Flagg, Jr., and Mr. John P. McGrail, Jr. With them, and Mr. Nicholas R. Cecchini, our Yearbook advisor, we conclude a fruitful and highly-rewarding period of our life, filled not only with capable teachers, but also with fine supervisors, sculptors, as it were, who have done much to mold us into what we are today.

We shall always be indebted to these people, and, in the years to come, will endeavor to show them that their efforts were worthwhile.

Junior Varsity

"Hoping"

"Two points?"

The 1959-60 basketball season found the Lions getting off to a comparatively slow start. Due to the patience and direction of Mr. Carlton O'Connor, plus the determination and spirit manifested by the squad, the season brought many victories, highlighted by a 58-56 overtime triumph over Grafton High. The season record was 9 wins and 9 losses.

The final standings of the Southern Worcester County Blackstone Valley League found West Boylston in second place, the highest position attained by the team in the three years of league operation.

The Lions entered the quarter finals of the Clark Tournament, and were defeated by Leicester High School.

Cheerleaders

The 1959 hill-and-dalers, under the capable guidance of Mr. Arnold Weller, turned in a commendable season. Participation in the annual Knights of Columbus Tournament highlighted the schedule. The season record was 3 wins and 5 losses.

Track

Baseball

The 1959 baseball squad, under the capable coaching of Mr. Robert Duby, showed a spirit that manifested itself as the season progressed. Although short in victories, the trimph over Leicester High, Western Worcester County Champions, will be long remembered. The season record was 3 wins and 7 losses.

Softball

The 1959 Varsity softball team, having gained the necessary teamwork and spirit through many weeks of practice, went on to win the first game of the season by defeating Northboro, 31-19. The season record was 5 wins and 4 losses.

Many thanks go to Mrs. Joan Swanson for her faith and inspiration as well as her excellent coaching.

Field Hockey

Although the Varsity team gained many new first-string players at the start of the season, they came through with a record of 3 wins, 4 ties, and 3 losses. High scorers were Bonnie Goodale and Barbara Nowak.

We wish to extend our sincere thanks to Mrs. Natalie Maynard for her excellent and untiring efforts as coach.

Acknowledgments

Now that the 1960 Lion's Roar has been finally completed, we take time out to recognize and show our appreciation to the individuals who worked to make this Yearbook possible. Of special recognition are:

THE BUSHONG STUDIO, for their excellent work on the formal portraits and other phases of photography for the Yearbook.

MR. PAUL DAVIS, of the faculty, who supervised special protography projects.

MR. WILLIAM ROWAN, representative of the Taylor Publishing Company for his helpful suggestions.

MR. CHARLES B. JOHNSON, Principal, for his administrative assistance.

THE ADVERTISERS, whose generous support helped ease our financial worries.

THE YEARBOOK STAFF, who worked to meet copy deadlines.

To these and everyone else who in any way contributed to this Annual, Thank you!

Miss Pamela Holmes

Mr. Nicholas R. Cecchini, Faculty
Yearbook Advisor

The financial obligations entailed in the production of this issue of the Lion's Roar have been met in great part by the generous support of the advertisers whose names appear on the following pages.

It's time to focus on your future

You are going to live longer — people are living longer now — the best years of your life are coming! They can be a lot of fun . . . rich and full and satisfying, if you plan for them. And whether it's travel, retirement, or perhaps a place in the country, you can achieve it by planned regular savings here with us.

There's no better place to save than at Worcester Federal Savings and Loan Association. Returns are excellent. Your savings grow fast . . . and your money's insured by the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation. So be sure of those good years ahead. Add to your present account or open a new savings account with us now.
